

NOW HIRING HOUSING INSPECTOR PROJECT MANAGER

$42.1770 - $51.2664 Hourly
$87,728 - $106,634 Annually

Plus a competitive benefits package, including retiree medical!

MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN THE CITY OF PINOLE!

The Role

Manages the City's rental inspection program. Conducts inspections of residential, apartment, and hotel/motel properties to ensure compliance with housing, building, zoning, and health and safety codes. Responds to habitability complaints, works with property owners and tenants to resolve issues, issues notices and citations when needed, and participates in neighborhood preservation and community outreach.

Apply Now

Help us maintain safe and thriving neighborhoods.

governmentjobs.com/careers/pinole

Ideal Candidate

- Knowledge of California housing/building codes
- Strong communication and customer service skills
- Ability to de-escalate conflicts and work with diverse communities
- Independent, organized, and able to manage multiple cases
- Committed to community safety and housing quality
- A team player

Minimum Qualifications

A four-year degree, at least one year of administrative or professional support experience, and a valid California Class C driver's license. An ICC Residential Building Inspector (B-1) certification and an ICC Property Maintenance & Housing Inspector certification (or equivalent) are highly desirable.